

Our Commitment to Privacy

At The Sports and Physical Therapy Center our patients' privacy is a top priority. The following privacy policy pertains to any information that we obtain online through the use of this website. The following policy is developed to allow our patients to make informed decisions regarding the use of their personal information online. This privacy policy describes what types of information we may gather, how we will use this information, under what circumstances your information will be disclosed to third parties, and your rights to update or correct it.

Information We Collect

We collect information from our visitors when they complete the contact us form. This information collected includes names, email addresses, phone numbers, and personal comments.

How Information is Used

Information collected by The Sports and Physical Therapy Center via our contact us form will be used for internal review and company and website improvement. In addition, when necessary, we will use your phone number, address, or email address to reply directly to requests made via our contact us form. We will not make email address, names, phone numbers, or any other types of personally identifiable information collected on our website available to any outside organization unless directly related to completing a request initiated by the customer. We will never sell, trade, or make available to outside parties any email addresses, names, addresses, or any other personally identifiable information, which we obtain through our website.

Email addresses provided to us through our website may occasionally be used to send you informational updates pertaining to things such as company news and service information. If at any time, you wish to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you may send us an email requesting to opt out of future notifications.

How Your Personal Information Will Be Protected

We have implemented a number of appropriate security measures in order to maintain the safety of your personal information. This includes both in our physical facility and in our electronic system to protect against the loss, misuse, or alteration of the information that we have collected through our site.

If you need to correct personal information, which you have provided to us through our website, please contact us with the required corrections. We will take the reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the updates are made in a secure manner in order to protect your privacy.

Your Consent

By using our web site, you consent to the terms of this privacy policy.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

We, The Sports and Physical Therapy Center, reserve the right to change our privacy policy as needed. If changes are made to this privacy policy, they will be made available to you through this page.
